

Twilight Void

Sodom

Sun breaking through the osseous wall
Released the scary sanctified wraith
Ignited reality envelops the souls
Blind ecstasy in crimson caress
Revenge of fire will return at least
Don't include me to your perverse dreams
Whipping shadows of the dead
Deep in inside their hollow shells

Sprayed and betrayed
I was killed in Vietnam
Just haven't died yet
Slowly clotting blood

Twilight void, obliterated
Searching for the holy place
Wherever I will slowly die at least
Twilight void, exterminated
Salvation numbs my godless pain
To wash the warlike grimace from my face

With every fiber of my body
I detest your mendacious life
The scent of wicked love of doom
I cast out in the skies
Deviate from faith and abasing myself
Spit out your sins desecrated flesh
Obsessions in the moonlight shadows
Can't escape the nightmare's end

Sprayed and betrayed
I was killed in Vietnam
Just haven't died yet
Slowly clotting blood

Twilight void, obliterated
Searching for the holy place
Wherever I will slowly die at least
Twilight void, exterminated
Salvation numbs my godless pain
To wash the warlike grimace from my face

Sprayed and betrayed
I was killed in Vietnam
Just haven't died yet
Slowly clotting blood

Twilight void, obliterated
Searching for the holy place
Wherever I will slowly die at least
Twilight void
