

Bedroom Ceiling

Sody

I stay up late and I talk to the moon
And I can't stop telling him all about you
Wonder if you do the same thing I do
And these four white walls they know more than my friends
They watch me type messages I'll never send
This is the place that I just can't pretend to be alright

Is your bedroom ceiling bored like mine
Of you staring at it all the time
'Cause it's seen so many nights while I cry and I yell at the sky
For not telling you how I feel
Is your bedroom ceiling bored
Like mine?

I get up early and talk to the sun
I ask her for guidance but she ain't got none
How am I supposed to know you're not the one?
I'm begging to the mirror 'cause I cannot find an answer
Too busy falling apart and I wonder if you're moving on
If you are, what's your secret?
'Cause I can't work out where to start

Is your bedroom ceiling bored like mine
Of you staring at it all the time
'Cause it's seen so many nights while I cry and I yell at the sky
For not telling you how I feel
Is your bedroom ceiling bored
Like mine?

I stay up late and I talk to the moon
And I can't stop telling him all about you
Wonder if you do the same thing I do
I hope you do

Is your bedroom ceiling bored like mine
Of you staring at it all the time
'Cause it's seen so many nights while I cry and I yell at the sky
For not telling you how I feel
Is your bedroom ceiling bored
Is your bedroom ceiling bored
Like mine?
