Sody

Butterfly, it's a lonely night
I need someone to talk to
So butterfly, can you read my mind?
Been struggling again so

I came to find the wings you use to fly away
I wanna borrow them some day
'Cause I've been fighting all the time
I'm kinda feeling dead inside
But you
You believe in me

And when I'm feeling down
You are always around
And you remind me how
Real growth takes time

And when I'm feeling low
I see you and I know
Still got a way to go
Real growth takes time
Butterfly
Butterfly

Butterfly, sit by my side
'Cause lately I've been falling
From heights and I'm terrified
I'm always gonna feel like this
How did you learn to trust that you'll become what you are destined to?
'Cause I can't seem to find a way to get out of my bed today
But you
Yeah, you believe in me

And when I'm feeling down
You're always around
And you remind me how
Real growth takes time

And when I'm feeling low
I see you and I know
Still got a way to go
Real growth takes time
Butterfly

Butterfly
Butterfly
Butterfly

And when I'm feeling down
You're always around
And you remind me how
Real growth takes time

And when I'm feeling low
I see you and I know
Still got a way to go

Butterfly
