

Let Go

Sody

I just wanna let go

Blood shot eyes, they're so excited
Kids on sugar, they're running riot
Room starts spinning, they start to fade out
All they wanna do is feel good, feel good
You've burned my lungs, I can barely breathe now
A crowd of bodies, I can barely see now
Smoking like a chimney, can't take anymore now
All they wanna do is let go, let go
It blows my mind and I, I don't understand it

And all they wanna do is let go, let go
All they wanna do is let go, let go
And all they wanna do is let go, let go
I just wanna let go
And all they wanna do is let go, let go
All they wanna do is let go, let go
And all they wanna do is let go, let go
I just wanna let go
I just wanna let go
I just wanna let go

It's so clear, I should've seen it
Starved of the love that you thought you needed
You drink away the morals that you've always believed in
All they wanna do is feel good, feel good
Hidden by youth, they're just liars
Wild children, they're playing with fire
You call their names but they just wanna climb higher
All they wanna do is feel good, feel good

And all they wanna do is let go, let go
All they wanna do is let go, let go
And all they wanna do is let go, let go
I just wanna let go
And all they wanna do is let go, let go
All they wanna do is let go, let go
And all they wanna do is let go, let go
I just wanna let go
I just wanna let go
I just wanna let go

Raise your glass in slow motion
See your eyes, they're wide open
Feel the beat of the moment
I just wanna let go
Raise your glass in slow motion
See your eyes, they're wide open
Feel the beat of the moment
I just wanna let go
I just wanna let go

And all they wanna do is let go, let go
All they wanna do is let go, let go
All they wanna do is let go, let go
I just wanna let go

And all they wanna do is let go, let go
All they wanna do is let go, let go
All they wanna do is let go, let go
I just wanna let go
I just wanna let go
I just wanna let go
