

looking for you

Sody

Called it off, blamed the distance
Not because anything was missing
I think we could've worked it out
In different circumstances
Guess it's time that I move on Cross some lines now that you're gone
Isn't that what you're supposed to do
Right after it's ended?

But I don't know how to restart
When there's a you-shaped hole in my heart

I'm looking for you in everybody that I'm sleeping with
I'm looking for you in every stranger that I'm kissing
But they don't taste like you, I wish that they did
But they never do
I can't make any room 'cause
I'm looking for you, staring at someone else's ceiling
Yeah, I'm forcing myself to fake something that I'm not feeling
And I'm going through hell, I'm hiding it well
But it's no use
'Cause even when I'm not looking, I'm looking for you

Getting lost at a party
Going out three days of the week
I'm out of my depth, emotionally overdressed
I'm trying my best
But in the back of my head, I'm

I'm looking for you in everybody that I'm sleeping with
I'm looking for you in every stranger that I'm kissing
But they don't taste like you, I wish that they did
But they never do
I can't make any room 'cause
I'm looking for you, staring at someone else's ceiling
Yeah, I'm forcing myself to fake something that I'm not feeling
And I'm going through hell, I'm hiding it well
But it's no use
'Cause even when I'm not looking, I'm looking for you

Oh, I'm looking for you
Ooh, ooh, ooh

Someone takes me back to the start
Before the you-shaped whole in my heart 'cause

I'm looking for you in everybody that I'm sleeping with
I'm looking for you in every stranger that I'm kissing
But they don't taste like you, I wish that they did
But they never do
I can't make any room 'cause
I'm looking for you, staring at someone else's ceiling
Yeah, I'm forcing myself to fake something that I'm not feeling
And I'm going through hell, I'm hiding it well
But it's no use
'Cause even when I'm not looking, I'm looking for you

Oh, I'm looking for you
I'm going through hell, I'm hiding it well
But it's no use
'Cause even when I'm not looking, I'm looking for you
