

Settle Down

Sody

Sleepless nights and endless days
Hiding from your lies that keep me awake
It's hurting, it's hurting
And I know what's yet to come
You watch me rise and I'll watch you fall
Can you see, you see?
I'm such a waste of your time

And love is tearing me apart
You're scratching in my heart, no
I'm just settle down, settle down
And you're different and I'm not gonna change that
Love is tearing me apart
You're scratching in my heart, no
I'm just settle down, settle down
And you're different and I'm not gonna change that

With sticks and stones I build my home
And that is where I stay when I'm all alone
I'm learning, learning
Poison tongues with twisted minds
You're so helpless in this disguise, it's over
You're such a waste of my time

And love is tearing me apart
You're scratching in my heart, no
I'm just settle down, settle down
And you're different and I'm not gonna change that
Love is tearing me apart
You're scratching in my heart, no
I'm just settle down, settle down
And you're different and I'm not gonna change that

Tell me what to say, tell me what to say
I won't run away, no not today
I am not afraid, don't tell me what to say
Tell me what to say, I won't run away, away
Don't tell me what to say, tell me what to say
I won't run away, no not today
I am not afraid, don't tell me what to say
Tell me what to say, I won't run away, away, no

Love is tearing me apart
You're scratching in my heart, no
I'm just settle down, settle down
And you're different and I'm not gonna change that
Love is tearing me apart
You're scratching in my heart, no
I'm just settle down, settle down
And you're different and I'm not gonna change that
