

Trust

Sody

How the hell did I get here?
Always thought I was strong enough to know when it's wrong
When did you, did you plan this?
'Cause you're leading me down a long road to sabotage
All I've ever asked for was a little honesty

I lent you my trust
But you took it and you ran with it
Left me for dead
Is there anybody here for me now?
Oh, how? Oh, how?
Could you ever do that to me?
Oh, I tried to believe in what you said to me
Lie after lie, had my future in the palm of your hands
Oh, how? Oh, how?
Could you ever do that to me?
Could you ever do that to me?
What did I ever do to you?

When will you give it back to me?
'Cause it's not yours to keep, you stole it from me, and I'm so disappointed
It's all a game, you love the power
It's out of my control, but you must know that you'll be sorry
All I've ever asked for was a little honesty

I lent you my trust
But you took it and you ran with it
Left me for dead
Is there anybody here for me now?
Oh, how? Oh, how?
Could you ever do that to me?
Oh, I tried to believe in what you said to me
Lie after lie, had my future in the palm of your hands
Oh, how? Oh, how?
Could you ever do that to me?

False promises, excuses, useless
Leave me alone, I don't wanna feel empty
Looking back, do you ever feel guilty?
False promises, excuses, useless
Leave me alone, I don't wanna feel empty
Looking back, do you ever feel guilty?

I lent you my trust
But you took it and you ran with it
Left me for dead
Is there anybody here for me now?
Oh, how? Oh, how?
Could you ever do that to me?
Oh, I tried to believe in what you said to me
Lie after lie, had my future in the palm of your hands
Oh, how? Oh, how?
Could you ever do that to me?
Could you ever do that to me?
What did I ever do to you?
