

I ain't get on this motherfucker to do too much flexin'
I'm just tryna
Just tryna get my point across
I'm just tryna pop my shit
I'm just tryna rock my shit
I'm just tryna lock this in
I can't let 'em box me in

Yeah, you know you can trust me, my heart is as pure as gold
I don't be with that other shit, you know I'm gettin' too old for that I just be on my money shit, focus on hundreds and focus on business
And I swear they be reachin' for everything, I got to havin' ho tint this
I been thinkin' 'bout buyin' my pops a Range Rove'
Why the fuck I go out of my way for the people I love? I don't know
Overthinkin' on this beat got me so slow
Partner turned into a snake, you're so low

Fuck it, guess it's all behind me
I been chillin' in the driver's seat
Everybody wanna rewind me
But I'm tryna go up as high as can be
Why you wanna be a burden?
I don't need that shit beside me
Everybody want see me hurtin'
I guess I gotta go pull out the heat

I guess you forgot, I freshen the memory
Yeah, I am the influence, they gotta remember me
And they know they can't do this, they chillin' behind me
I'm not hidin' from shit, lil' nigga, come find me
And I know that my girl, I got with me on high speed
Baby, I'm never questioning your loyalty
And I got me some brothers that do anything for me
You want me to believe it, then you gotta show me (Yeah)
I be with the action, ain't no talkin'
When I pull out the racks, limp when I'm walkin'
They wanna talk bad, got 'em stalkin'
And I'm on go mode, ain't no pausin'

Fuck it, guess it's all behind me
I been chillin' in the driver's seat
Everybody wanna rewind me
But I'm tryna go up as high as can be (Yeah)
Why you wanna be a burden?
I don't need that shit beside me
Everybody want see me hurtin'
I guess I gotta go pull out the heat
