Transparency

SoFaygo

I'm spittin', but are you feeling me? (On some shit right now)
Can you feel my emotions through my transparency?
Can't go back to the old me
Can you feel my emotions through my transparency?

I'ma write up before anything
I'ma write the verse before I sing the melody
I'ma strike you first before you try to step to me (Yeah)
And I'm gon' make it work before I let it fall to pieces
I'm somewhere chiefin' all the dope up
Get to the money, I don't know nothing else
And I know you see me rollin' up
It get cold out here, gotta cover up (Brrt)
Think you got me beat, you outta luck
I told my fans I'm gon' drop soon, some things just can't be ru shed
Man, it's a craft, man, it's a process, I gotta keep it up
If I wasn't me, who would I be?
Can't let them demons stop me (Yeah)

I'm spittin', but are you feeling me?
Can you feel my emotions through my transparency?
Can't go back to the old me
Can you feel my emotions through my transparency?

(I'm spittin' but are you feeling me?)
(Can you feel my emotions through my transparency?)
(Can't go back to the old me)
(Can you feel my emotions through my transparency?)
