

Hey Homie

Sofi Tukker

When I met you
I knew I'd never get to love you
But there's something about the way you hold my hand
That makes me feel at home

Isn't it obvious
You're not age appropriate
But there's something about the way we listen to music
That makes me hear it different

Hey homie
Let me love you lowkey
It's just a little love
But it's something holy
Somebody would get hurt
If we took it further
Let me love you lowkey

We found our rhythm
Dancing in circles around
Whatever we both know it is
But it's better like this anyway

Hey homie
Let me love you lowkey
It's just a little love
But it's something holy
Somebody would get hurt
If we took it further
Let me love you lowkey

I know
I should let go of you
But every time when I see you call, I
I pick up the phone

Hey homie
Let me love you lowkey
Somebody would get hurt
If we took it further
Let me love you lowkey
