Take off the day
Go back to sleep
Covered in mud
Lines on my cheek
Make up some rules
Break them myself
Used to think you were sweet
Used to think you were heartfelt

Shame, you kill my spirit and you're useless
Sugar, you're addictive and so ruthless
Speaking in absolutes, may be destructive, may be stupid
But I have a voice, and I'm gonna use it

Teeming up
Tuning out
Turning in Turning soft
All this noise
All this scrolling
Just enough
To turn me off
Don't you dare
Look at me
with that eloquent stare you got

1, 2, 3

No, no, no, no

I am far too reckless to have just one drink
Take the time to touch a Taurus, it's better than you think

Shame, you kill my spirit and you're useless
Sugar, you're addictive and so ruthless
Speaking in absolutes, may be destructive, may be stupid
But I have a voice, and I'm gonna use it
