

Two Tears In A Bucket

Sofia Carson

There were days, there were weeks
There were years when I just didn't care
I was free, then you came
Into frame
Rearranged how I think

Now I just can't believe I used to
Drive by your house at night, I
Burn all these butterflies that
You gave me once upon a time
When we were dumb
Enough to fantasize, yeah
That everything was fine, well
Oh, what a perfect guy
I'll be fine 'cause

There was life before you
And trust me, darling, there'll be life again
Though I once adored you
It's only fair when all I got was nothing
You'll be two tears in a bucket
There was life before you
So watch me as I end this crying game
Though I once adored you
It's only fair when all I got was nothing
You'll be two tears in a bucket

My best friends (My best friends)
Remind me (Remind me)
Before you (You), before us (Us), before this (This)
There was me
Where'd she go? (Where'd she go?)
I don't know (I don't know)
But she's here (Ah) and I'm holding her clothes (Ah)

Can't believe I used to
Drive by your house at night, I
Burn all these butterflies that
You gave me once upon a time
When we were dumb
Enough to fantasize, yeah
That everything was fine, well
Oh, what a perfect guy
I'll be fine 'cause

There was life before you
And trust me, darling, there'll be life again
Though I once adored you
It's only fair when all I got was nothing
You'll be two tears in a bucket
There was life before you
So watch me as I end this crying game
Though I once adored you
It's only fair when all I got was nothing
You'll be two tears in a bucket

Woah (Woah)

Woah (Woah)
Woah
When all I got was nothing
You'll be two tears in a bucket
Woah (Woah)
Woah (Woah)
Woah
All I got was nothing
You'll be two tears in a bucket
