

Why Don't I

Sofia Carson

I've never been one
To step out of my comfort zone
Whenever I try
I'm afraid to just let go

Don't know why I run
Don't know why I hide
Never let them know
What I feel inside

Don't know why I'm scared
Just to take a chance
While I'm just standing here

I've never been one
To break free
'Cause I've always cared
What everyone thinks of me

Don't know why I run
Don't know why I hide
Never let them know
What I feel inside

Don't know why I'm scared
Just to take a chance
While I'm just standing here

Like a bird
I'm free to fly
Spread my wings and find my light
Like a bird
I'm up so high out of the cage
It's my time to shine

Like a bird
I'm free to fly
So tell me, tell me
Why don't I?
