

Caught Me

Sofia Karlberg

How long have you known
That I don't belong in your world
These days a hard love
Like writing a song without words

That's you, you tear me up
I hope you get a papercut
No rules, I never thought
I'd get so far away from us

And I won't say I'm sorry, so stupidly falling
For somebody that I know can never have caught me
Say I won't say I'm sorry
Say I won't say I'm sorry
And I won't say I'm wrong just for being the first
To let down my guard to someone, in love with the hurt
So no, I won't say I'm sorry
Say I won't say I'm sorry

You're wrong and I know
That you've tried to fuck with my love
I stayed for too long
Hoping that I could make it work

That's you, you tear me up
I hope you get a papercut
No rules, I never thought
I'd get so far away from us

And I won't say I'm sorry, so stupidly falling
For somebody that I know can never have caught me
Say I won't say I'm sorry
Say I won't say I'm sorry
And I won't say I'm wrong just for being the first
To let down my guard to someone, in love with the hurt
So no, I won't say I'm sorry
Say I won't say I'm sorry

And I won't say I'm sorry
For somebody that I know
Yeah, I won't say I'm sorry
Say I won't say I'm sorry
