

Jukebox Head

Soft Cell

Jukebox, baby, jukebox (ah-ah)
In my jukebox head, my jukebox head (whoa-oh-oh)
Jukebox, baby, jukebox (ah-ah)
In my jukebox head, my jukebox head (whoa)
Jukebox head, my jukebox head
In my jukebox head, my jukebox head
Jukebox head, my jukebox head
Jukebox, baby, jukebox
Jukebox head, my jukebox head
In my jukebox head, my jukebox head
Jukebox head, my jukebox head
Jukebox, baby, jukebox (whoa)

I've got a jukebox in my head
And it's only playing sad songs
I got a jukebox in my head
And the song reminds me of you
We lost the love we had
Now the songs I hear are sad
The melodies are mournful
Why did our love go bad?
Only ballads sing 'bout loneliness
Of sorrow and of heartache
It's the same songs playing over and over

The words are killing
Tears are spilling

My jukebox
On my jukebox
Only sad songs on my jukebox
On my jukebox
On my jukebox
Since the day we were through
On my jukebox
On my jukebox
Gotta change the tune on my jukebox
To a song that I can dance to
And that won't remind me of you

Ah-ah-ah
Ah-ah-ah

I got a jukebox in my head (ah-ah)
With a song for all occasions
But the same song's going round and round (ah-ah)
Playing on rotation
I gotta give my head a shake
I need to change the music
A better record, a different beat
This hurt I gotta lose it

My jukebox
On my jukebox
Only sad songs on my jukebox
On my jukebox
On my jukebox

Since the day we were through
On my jukebox
On my jukebox
Gotta change the tune on my jukebox
To a song that I can dance to
And that won't remind me of you

On my jukebox
On my jukebox
Only sad songs on my jukebox
On my jukebox
On my jukebox
Since the day we were through
On my jukebox
On my jukebox
Gotta change the tune on my jukebox
To a song that I can dance to
And that won't remind me of you

I'm tired of weeping violins
The maudlin words the singer sings
I need a catchy chorus and the Beat goes on and on

In my jukebox head, my jukebox
Gotta change the tune on my jukebox
To a song that I can dance to
And that won't remind me of you
