

Strange Kinda Dance (Edit)

Soft Cell

It's a strange kinda dance
Moving away from each other
It's a strange kinda dance
Keeping away from each other
It's the strangest romance
Where we don't want to get together
It's a strange kinda dance
And we're not really dancing at all

Not gonna kiss you tonight
Maybe if I can [?]
I'm gonna miss you tonight
Because you're not really here
Just see you wave from the other side of the street
That's become a mile divide
We have to stay at a distance
Gotta keep in resistance

It's a strange kinda dance
Moving away from each other
It's a strange kinda dance
Keeping away from each other
It's the strangest romance
Where we don't want to get together
It's a strange kinda dance
That we're not really dancing at all

Taking a risk, do you want to decide?
Hang on in there for a weird kinda ride
It's a beautiful dance, it's a delicate play
As long as you're staying, staying away

(Left, right, left, right, one, two, three, four)
Staying away
(Left, right, left, right, one, two, three, four)
A delicate play
(Left, right, left, right, one, two, three, four)
It's a strange kinda dance
(Left, right, left, right, one, two, three, four)
That we're not really dancing at all
(Left, right, left, right, one, two, three, four)

When you're saying goodbye
This time it could be forever
It's a strange kinda dance
That we're not doing together
It's a strange kind of love
It's no loving at all
It's a beautiful dance
It's a beautiful fall
