The Art of Falling Apart

Soft Cell

Falling through at the seams Living life in a dream Even smiles make a lie And I smile all the time

I'm skilled at the art
Of falling apart
It's the holding together
Together forever

I'm skilled at the art
Of falling apart
It's the holding together
Together forever

Trying all of the vices
Is what's doing the damage
All the good things are bad things
And I'm paying the prices

I'm skilled at the art
Of falling apart
It's the holding together
Together forever

I'm skilled at the art
Of falling apart
It's the holding together
Together forever

I'm covered in bruises
From mixing with losers
It's the black and the blue
That's seeing me through

My cigarette diet Means my throat hurts like Hell My friends say I'm dying But I do it so well Thank you

I'm skilled at the art
Of falling apart
It's the holding together
Together forever

I'm skilled at the art
Of falling apart
It's the holding together
Together forever

I'm skilled at the art
Of falling apart
It's the holding together
Together forever

Together forever

Together forever

It's the holding together

Together forever

Together forever

It's the holding together

Together forever Together forever
