

Vapourise

Soft Cell

I awoke in a sweat
Lit a cheap cigarette
And painted a portrait
In black
I turned down my bed
Or the sofa instead
Remembering the good times
That me and my bed had

Planning revenge
Is a means to an end
Scenarios in crimson red
All our crime
So I'm biding my time
And I'm planning a war in my head

So long, lover, goodbye
You're not coming back
If it takes a nuclear explosion
A full-on attack
So long, lover, goodbye
Look into my eyes
Take in all my radiation
And vapourise

Vapourise (you're gonna vapourise)
Vapourise (you're gonna vapourise)
Vapourise (you're gonna vapourise)
You're gonna vapourise (vapourise)

If the tables were turned
You'd be getting your due
For your world's gonna burn
And it's turning on you
You're no good for my mind
And damage to my soul
You can never pay back the life
You stole

So long, lover, goodbye
You're not coming back
If it takes a nuclear explosion
A full-on attack
So long, lover, goodbye
Look into my eyes
Take in all my radiation
And vapourise

Vapourise (you're gonna vapourise)
Vapourise (you're gonna vapourise)
Vapourise (you're gonna vapourise)
You're gonna vapourise (vapourise)

So long, lover, goodbye
You're not coming back
If it takes a nuclear explosion
A full-on attack

So long, lover, goodbye
Look into my eyes
Take in all my radiation
And vapourise

Vapourise (you're gonna vapourise)
Vapourise (you're gonna vapourise)
Vapourise (you're gonna vapourise)
Vapourise (vapourise)

Look into my eyes
Look into my eyes
You're gonna vapourise
Vapourise

You're gonna vapourise
You're gonna vapourise
You're gonna vapourise
Vapourise

Look into my eyes
Vapourise
Look into my eyes
Vapourise
