

Show me something that I've never seen
'Cause I'm lost and I need feeding
Give me things that I never had
'Cause I'm bad at seeing ahead, it's true

I'll never find another like you
Similar tone but a different hue
Could never love another like you
I've been out living it's true
But enough's enough

I'll never find another like you
I'll never find another like you
Not in this life

Covers focusing on broken skin
'Cause I'm lost and I need bleeding
Tearing paper into smithereens
And no prose or poem will do you truth

I'll never find another like you
Similar tone but a different hue
Could never love another like you
I've been out living it's true
But enough's enough

I'll never find another like you
I'll never find another like you
Not in this life

Chastise me like I'm 17
'Cause I'm stuck and I've been waiting
Free me and I will murder
'Cause I am tired of looking
For sense, it's true

I'll never find another like you
I'll never find another like you
Not in this life
