

Unwavering

SOHN

How can I be unwavering
Un-tapering into a growing?
A single flame
Lit in my chest
I'm hunched apart
Keeping it sheltered

If I curl my shoulders open
Expose it to the wind
Would it then douse me down again
Would I then be broken

I held it all I want it all
I saw him though the cracks
He then would let me down again
Could I ever be open?

Why do I fear unwavering
When stumbling into a knowing?

If I curl my shoulders open
Expose it to the wind
Could I then burn until your gone?
Would I then now become the sun?

I held it all I want it all
To see him fall and say
"I'm sorry"...

I don't wanna have to go again I'm tired
I know I have to go again I'm tired
Don't wanna have to go again I'm tired
I know I have to go again I'm tired
