

Hold Me Back

Sohodolls

The coldest war
A stranger can't keep me warm at night
In my arms
You had no chance against my silent fight

The signal came and I was bound
Oh
I held you close and shot you down
Oh

Hold me back
'Cause I can't stop falling
I can't stop falling over
My tears are blind
And I can't keep going
I can't go for much longer

Baby you kissed me
You held me
You saved me
(I can't stop falling)

Baby I pushed you
I played you
Betrayed you
(I can't stop falling)

A battle is won
And all I feel is pain inside
A smoking gun
Started burning in my mind

I can't trick all the other guys
No
And your face haunts me day and night
Oh

Hold me back
'Cause I can't stop falling
I can't stop falling over
My tears are blind
And I can't keep going
I can't go for much longer

Baby you kissed me
You held me
You saved me
(I can't stop falling)

Baby I pushed you
I played you
Betrayed you
(I can't stop falling)

Hold me back
'Cause I can't stop falling

My tears are blind
And I can't keep going

Baby you kissed me
You held me
You saved me
(I can't stop falling)

Baby I pushed you
I played you
Betrayed you
(I can't stop falling)
