

And did you think I was just for the weekend?
Like something you could just hold down and go?
Well now you've dropped yourself right in the deep end
Only you will know
I'm not the type to wash and go, oh
How you appreciate harder and faster
I'm not the type that can cope with it slow
In the end it would spell your disaster
Only you will know
I'm not the type to wash and go (oh-o-o-oh)

Just a crush, not too serious
And nothing will ever be
Just a crush, I'm delirious
You thought you'd only use me for the weekend

Just for the weekend
For the weekend
Just for the weekend

And do you think I am blind to your weakness?
I'm just deciding on which way to go
Everybody will think I'm the sweetest
Only you will know that I could be your friend or foe (oh-o-o-oh)

Just a crush, not too serious
And nothing will ever be
Just a crush, I'm delirious
You thought you'd only use me
For the weekend

Just for the weekend
For the weekend
Just for the weekend

Come on, be strong
Your baby's gone
It wouldn't matter if it weren't so wrong
I wouldn't be here if you didn't want
Come on, be strong
Your baby's gone
It wouldn't matter if it weren't so wrong

(Thought you'd only use me)
(Thought you'd only use me)
(Thought you'd only use me)
For the weekend

Just for the weekend
For the weekend
Just for the weekend

(Come on, be strong)
Just for the weekend
(Come on, be strong, your baby's gone)
It wouldn't matter if it weren't so wrong
(Come on, be strong, your baby's gone)
