

No Gods

Sol Invictus

We sit here waiting
But I know who will call
I know who will visit
No one, no one at all

No gods
No gods
No gods
Anymore

On the platform at the station
But our train will never come
Stranded in this waiting room
With a sky without a sun

No gods
No gods
No gods
Anymore

With full shelves and empty lives
We all live in separate cages
Deicide with lullaby knives
Caught between Heaven and Hades

No gods
No gods
No gods
Anymore
