

About You

Sol

I see my friends are right about you
But I still write about you
And they say I'm alright without you
But I stay up all night about you
And they say I'm all stuck in my ways
But I don't give a fuck what they say
Now it's off for now, a time
And ain't nothin' new

Ask yourself is it worth it
Look at yourself as a person
Do I help you get to your purpose
If the answer's yes, let's do it again
Yeah, yeah, let's do it again
Late night slide throughs
Early morning round twos
Feel like typhoons, these up and downs with you
High so high they make the lows feel like the world is over
Don't pull me over
Got me fucked up even when I'm sober
Homies on my lifeline saying I'm 'bout to slip
Fallin', go get a grip
Told 'em don't even trip (trip)
I know you love me, how you show me so intense
Hold me like I was glass
Throw me like I was, shit

I see my friends are right about you
But I still write about you
And they say I'm alright without you
But I stay up all night about you
And they say I'm all stuck in my ways
But I don't give a fuck what they say
Now it's off for now, a time
And ain't nothin' new

Me and you
You and me
We could be a thing
It's a dream
In the sheets, fuckin' right between
Is it love, I don't know, I don't stress a thought
I just coast, but it's crazy how we stop and go

Give me that good sex
That grip on the headboard when you cum next
When I'm done with it you gon' call in sick
Friends always be talking shit
They don't got nothin', nothin' like us
They don't look nothin', nothin' like us
They don't even deserve a bar in this song about your love
We know this isn't new
You know I fuck with you
You know I'd give it all up
For another night or two
My muse, my water
My drug I abuse, my alter

If I'm accused of falling harder, it's true
You know it's nothin' new

I see my friends are right about you (about you)
But I still write about you (about you)
And they say I'm alright without you (about you)
But I stay up all night about you (about you)
And they say I'm all stuck in my ways (my ways)
But I don't give a fuck what they say (they say)
Now it's off for now, a time (about time)
And ain't nothin' new

Me and you
You and me
We could be a thing
It's a dream
In the sheets, fuckin' right between
Is it love, I don't know, I don't stress a thought
I just coast, but it's crazy how we stop and go
