Sol

I'm might never ever, ever be sober
No, I will never ever be sober
Cause every time I'm thinkin' that it's over
Your love got me trippin', I'm so addicted

You see I ain't usually, the type of guy
To let a girl get all up, inside my mind
Inside my blood, pumpin' through my heart
Used to be a player, boy, now who woulda thought that I woulda settled down, wanted to keep around
Used to hold a couple chicks, I don't even need 'em now
I got me one, that can do it all
Probably not the one, but it's food for thought
At first she blew me off, she was playin' games
But you know me, check late only takes a day
I think it's safe to say, she's in my bed to stay
A hundred and ten pounds, but her lovin' is heavy weight
She my dirty little secret, not even my homies know we creepin'
Sleepin' over, every single weekend
We is never, sober
Addicted, fiendin'

I'm might never ever, ever be sober
No, I will never ever be sober
Cause every time I'm thinkin' that it's over
Your love got me trippin', I'm so addicted

I swear to God, I think I died
And went to Heaven, this girl got me higher than Devin
The dude, the things she do
Got me feelin' brand new, like we back in middle school
I wanna, thank you very much
For gettin' me so damn high, off of yo damn love
Cause when you roll up, you always show up
Ready for us to crush, like the soda
Not just your body frame, but what your body sayin'
Got me thinkin' bout your body in some naughty ways
I know we gotta leave, but I'll probably stay
I'm so addicted to your love that my heart will break
Yeah, the doctor said I'm so addicted to your love my heart will break
Feel me though?
So girl you gotta stay

I'm might never ever, ever be sober
No, I will never ever be sober
Cause every time I'm thinkin' that it's over
Your love got me trippin', I'm so addicted

I'm a fiend, for your touch
So it seems that I can't get enough
On the late night, in the daylight
I can't stay right unless you give me love
I'm a fool, without, my vice
That's why I, need you in, my life (You know how to get me high)
Your the one that I wanna, take home to momma
I'm not gonna fuck around anymore
You'll be perfect in small doses 'til you move into my home

And then my neighbors find my body on the floor
I'm addicted, to your love
Your body got me trippin', double vision
I'm so fucked up, they want me to go to rehab

I'm might never ever, ever be sober
No, I will never ever be sober
Cause every time I'm thinkin' that it's over
Your love got me trippin', I'm so addicted
