

Headspace Traveler

Sol

I've been in my headspace traveling, gone so far... so far
I've been in my headspace traveling, gone so far... so far
I've been in my headspace traveling, gone so far... so far

Intermission - If you've been waiting
My apologies, took a minute to get it straightened
I've been starving for inspiration
When the dinner plate was in my hand. Damn...
I wasn't ready to stomach the fact
That maybe it wasn't you it was me, lately I've been dealing with that Writing my way through it. Giving my life to the music
Pretty soon it's just going to be me and the pen... my worst enemy
A thousand pounds of lead
The heaviest thoughts and they're all in my head
Breaking my neck if I don't let them out
I might drown. I might smoke my way to heaven jumping from cloud to cloud...

I've been in my headspace traveling, gone so far... so far
I've been in my headspace traveling, gone so far... so far
