

If You Don't Call

Sol

If you don't call (yeah)
And you think about me, don't worry I'm good. (yeah)
Still care about you
Never call but you could
Either way, I'll be good
Either way, I'll be good
If you don't call
When you think about me, don't worry I'm good
Either way, I'll be good
Either way, I'll be good
If you don't call
Either way, I'll be good
Either way, I'll be good

When we kicked it everyday
We were something like
One in the same, two sides of the brain
Now we don't talk, we went opposite ways
What happened? I couldn't honestly say
Just part of living life I guess...
People move on
Everything ends, like it's a song, can't repeat it
Even your jam, you know her by heart
Even your friends, you treat like your fam, like the son of your mom
Love some women like my sister but now they're cutting me off
I got exes I could text whenever something was wrong
Now they married out in Texas and they husband's got a gun
... So we don't talk

If you don't call (yeah)
And you think about me, don't worry I'm good. (I'm good, I'm good, I'm good)
Yeah, still care about you
Never call but you could
Either way, I'll be good
Either way, I'll be good
If you don't call
Either way, I'll be good
Either way, I'll be good
Don't worry I'm good

Old friends, new friends
School Friends, too cool friends, that one girlfriend
You know...
At one point meant the world friend
Lost touch, but you're always my fam
Now we don't even wave when I see you around the way
We just both look away
Used to call me every day
But over time people change
And timing is everything... (timing is everything)
I don't blame you, I don't wanna hate you
After everything we been through, I just wanna thank you
For being who you are, even though we grew apart
Without you, I wouldn't make it this far
Now I'm in my zone no new friends (no new friends)
And the way I'm working I'ma lose my old friends (all my old friends)
On my phone, unread text and full inbox

But that ain't the only reason we don't talk

If you don't call (if you don't call)

Yeah, and you think about me, don't worry I'm good. (I'm good, I'm good, I'm good)

Yeah, still care about you

Never call but you could

Either way, I'll be good

Either way, I'll be good

If you don't call

Either way, I'll be good

Either way, I'll be good

Don't worry I'm good

If you don't call

Either way, I'll be good

Either way, I'll be good
