Lost at Sea

Sol

Wake up in the morning, feeling fresh
Thankful for the pretty girl laying to my left
Maybe roll some, maybe make some breakfast
Like the ocean crash on my bed set
Banging on the walls bang-banging on the walls
Like the beat bump, we jump out of our drawers
On that love drug and I'm a junkie fiend
I might never leave Kingston I'm lost at sea

And your my captain
It's all your fault
You got me strapped in
Ready to sink with the boat
You're everything I know

Like a ship in a bottle, you're trapped inside my heart
Each four corners of the earth have explored
Just to discover you moments before I give up
Lost at sea when we're together
Nothing matters, just us and nothing after
Fucking laughter, my life's in it's favorite chapter
Let's take a snapshot to never forget this moment
Met you at the store buying snacks
I was stoning next to mary
Now you moaning
Get to see you every morning
Get to kiss you 'fore I leave
You leave me feeling floaty
That love is potent
Got me swimming in the ocean
Lost, not giving a fuck where I am going
I'm just a castaway
Casted in your way
Let's make a scene
That time that rapper ran away with that Jamaican girl
Moved to Kingston, built a home
To raise his young
Never to sing another song
What if we did it?
Just finished work and then we dipping
Matter fact start to itch in this thing this very second
I'm itching to get you between them linens, listen
You can hear our past in the distance

Not running from the past
But running for the future
I know I'm moving fast
Baby tell me can you keep up?
I don't need to sleep cause
Girl you keep me going
Caught up in the moment
Floating, ocean

Like a ship in a bottle, you're trapped inside my heart
Each four corners of the earth have explored
Just to discover you moments before I give up
Lost at sea when we're together

Last call you better go home with something
Fall hard or you might end up with nothing
It ain't right if you ain't spending the night in Young love, tongue-tied and cautioned
