

The Key

Sol

You got me feelin like, like I never left
Like I took you with me everywhere I went
From the good times, to the hard times
A good heart was never hard to find
No lie, it feels hard to describe
What's it like on the other side?
But still I try
I take it in, let it brake through my skin
And change who I am inside, right
Rest in peace to the man that I was
I don't plan to go back, only up
With a book full of rhymes, and a pocket full of dreams
That I place in a world that I can't touch, open up

I got the key, only question is, what I do with it
Open the door, let my whole crew get it
I'll never touch it, let it get to my ego
I'd rather let my people live it, let my people live it
I got the key, only question is, what I do with it
Open the door, let my whole crew get it
I'll never touch it, let it get to my ego
I'd rather let my people live it, let my people live it

Keys open doors, keys, keys open doors
For me the key was 20 G's to go abroad
I hope you understand I'm on a other kind of tour
If you like I'm on a other kind of planet
Tell my mother I'm a star
Some feels different, apart from the customs
Feel my heart in my chest like it just started pumpin
Nothing like showing up, and knowing no one
Then leave with em with the key to the country
Doors open
I was a young boy, now I'm a grown man
Ready to choose who I am, make my own stamp
Solzilla the young spitta that took off
Came back, and changed rap, just watch
I'm in my prime so I'm working till the night
Then, wake up with the light and
Do it again, once you open your eyes
You see gifts and presents
So when you're bigger than legends, you still move like a man
Wassup!

I got the key, only question is, what I do with it
Open the door, let my whole crew get it
I'll never touch it, let it get to my ego
I'd rather let my people live it, let my people live it
I got the key, only question is, what I do with it
Open the door, let my whole crew get it
I'll never touch it, let it get to my ego
I'd rather let my people live it, let my people live it

It get's hard, sometimes we feel lost
And feel blind
We all need a break sometimes
I just want a break sometimes

I just want a break sometimes
I just want break sometimes
We all need a break sometimes
