

Left Side Drive

Solange

You.. You got one hand in your pocket
The other on my heart.
We, We got a plan of a lifetime
But don't know where to start
And all I can think to staying happy
If I could just talk at all
For the road
Before it comes to life
You're never blowing out the candles
And I
Can't learn to say goodbye

You never get too far,
And I'll always be here waiting.
You never come.
You drive around in circles
So you never get too far.
You never do
Slow down.

You're moving too fast
You always do.
You never get too far
And I'll always be here waiting
On the left side drive.

I become a serial lover
And don't know where to end.
You.
You're in the state of confusion
And don't know where to begin.
And all I see is rainbows running
If I could just talk at all
For the road
Before it comes to life

You seem like heaven from a distance
And I
Can't learn to say goodbye

You never get too far
And I'll always be here waiting.
You never come.
You drive around in circles
So u never get too far.
You never do
Slow down.
You're movin'
You're movin'

And I can't be here waiting
I won't be waiting
I won't be waiting
I won't be waiting

And the lost isle of Bangladesh

Barbados, Barbuda, Bermuda
This is the pure road
We don't drive on the left side
But I've been waiting on the right side
For you.
You.
Haaa.
