

All That You Ask Me

Solas

All that you ask me is that I remember
That I remember what we've been through
All that I'm saying is that I remember
That I remember you

Some people say that miles make no difference
Miles are the distance between me and you
And watch out for love, it's not gold 'cause it glistens
Cheap reminiscence ain't worthy of you

All that you ask me is that I remember
That I remember what we've been through
All that I'm saying is that I remember
That I remember you

If it's not all or nothing, it's not worth the giving
Love's not worth the living 'til it's put to the test
And no guarantees doesn't mean I'm not buying
Just means we keep trying even more than the rest

There's no sadness in leaving if you leave for a reason
The best of all reasons is to come back again
And tears in the morning can bring joy in the evening
Just keep believing that love finds a way

All that you ask me is that I remember
That I remember what we've been through
All that I'm saying is that I remember
That I remember you

All that you ask me is that I remember
That I remember what we've been through
All that I'm saying is that I remember
That I remember you
