

4 Good Reasons

Solence

(One, two)

(One, two, three, four)

One

You kept on beating me down

You said I wouldn't make it I was never enough

Two

Kept talking shit 'bout my friends

You said I didn't need 'em I was good by myself

Three

You manipulated me

You took me high high up, and then down down deep

Four

Well I don't need anymore

'Cause I'm done with taking shit

Now you know

I've got four good reasons to leave you

So now you'll never see me again (See me again)

No, I don't fuck with your ego

So now you'll never see me again

(One, two, three, four)

Five

I guess the four was enough

But I still got a minute and I'm calling your bluff now

Six

It's just matter of time you can run, run, run

Nothings ever gonna save you from

Karma

You will get what you deserve

You will get what you deserve

You will get what you deserve

I've got four good reasons to leave you

So now you'll never see me again (See me again)

No, I don't fuck with your ego

So now you'll never see me again (See me again)

(See me again)

Four good reasons to leave you

You got four more seconds to get out the door

I count

One, two, three, four

(You will get what you deserve)

I've got four good reasons to leave you

So now you'll never see me again (See me again)

No, I don't fuck with your ego

So now you'll never see me again (See me again)
