

Better This Way

Solence

I know, I know you tried your best
And still it went to hell
You lost something you can't get back
And it hurts so much to think that you're not good enough for them
But you're on another path and it will all be ending well
I promise

It's better, better, better this way
You'll find something that's better for you anyway
And even though it's hard to see today
I promise, promise, promise

In the middle of the air as you are free falling down
You will lose your hope, you will lose your fight
But the second as your feet hit the ground
You will realize (You will realize)
In the end, you'll see the light
I promise

It's better, better, better this way
You'll find something that's better for you anyway
And even though it's hard to see today
(Even though it's hard to see)
I promise, promise, promise

It's better like, better like this
It's better like, better like this
It's better like, better like this, this
It's better like, better like this
It's better like, better like this
It's better like, better like this, this
Yeah

I know, I know you tried your best
And still it went to hell
You lost something you can't get back
And it hurts so much to think that you're not good enough for them
But you're on another path and it will all be ending
All be ending well
(All be ending well)
I promise, promise, promise, yeah

It's better, better, better this way (It's better, so much better)
You'll find something that's better for you anyway (Yeah)
And even though it's hard to see today
(Even though it's hard to see)
I promise, promise, promise (Yeah)
It's better, better, better this way (One more time)
It's better, better, better this way
And even though it's hard to see today
I promise, promise, promise
