

Blow Up

Solence

Oh baby you got me begging begging I'm on my knees
You make me feel like I am loosing all my sanity
I wanna give you everything that you would ever need come blow up baby blow up yeah
With me

You don't need medication
Don't need adrenaline
You don't need anything
Just let me in

And I will make you Blow Up
I will send shivers down your spine
Hands in my hands if you follow my plans
Then it will happen tonight
Yeah I will make you blow up
I will bring everything to life
Promise I promise if you don't believe then
Oh baby come blow up with me

I promise you that I u understand what you need
So give me all your faith and I will give you full relief

So come and blow up baby blow up yeah with me

Come be my medication
Be my adrenaline
Hear what I'm offering and let me in
