Solence

I'm walking down
This shallow mind
The demons keep
Me falling down

Knocking on your front door
Asking you to say no baby
Oh, Oh

I can't excuse
How I behave
So fired up and baby I will burn in hell
That you could never break me
I'm ice and your Titanic, baby
Wo, Oh

I'm loading up the mag of my gun
And I can hear you screaming me for more (more)

I'll shot you ti'll you lying on the floor (floor)
And I can hear you breathing, no
I'm loading up the mag of my gun
And I can hear you screaming me for more (more)
Yes I can hear you screaming me for more

You tell me how
You can't survive
Without me there
You fall apart

But honey I'm addicted
To breaking hearts affliction, Oh no
Woh, Oh

I can't excuse
How I behave
So fired up and baby I will burn in hell

I'm asking you to leave me
Alone with all my secrets baby
Oh, ohh

I'm loading up the mag of my gun
And I can hear you screaming me for more (more)

I'll shot you ti'll you lying on the floor (floor)
And I can hear you breathing, no
I'm loading up the mag of my gun
And I can hear you screaming me for more (more)
Yes I can hear you screaming me for more

It took me quite a while to figure out
How I became the thug and you the victim
It over, over, over, over

And I can hear you breathing, no
I'm loading up the mag of my gun

And I can hear you screaming me for more (more)
Yes I can hear you screaming me for more

And I can hear you breathing, no
I'm loading up the mag of my gun
And I can hear you screaming me for more (more)
Yes I can hear you screaming me for more
