

Snakes

Solence

Attention all citizens, this is an emergency broadcast message telling every one to stay inside
Apparently, the streets are flooded with SNAKES

The city's covered
Covered in snakes
They're all around us
In different shapes
They wanna get in
Get in our heads
They want us quiet
They want us dead

Every second, second
I can hear them breathe
Minute, minute
Hear them whispering
Hour, hour
Negativity

Gotta get out!

So we go far away
As far as we can go
To somewhere we belong
Yeah we go
Far away
As far as it will take
To somewhere we get rid of all these snakes

Their skin is shiny
Shiny like gold
But they are rotten
Deep to the core
They will seduce you
Get through the door
Then they bite you in the neck
Leave you bleeding on the floor

Every second, second
I can hear them breathe
Minute, minute
Hear them whispering
Hour, hour
Negativity

Gotta, gotta get out!

So we go far away
As far as we can go
To somewhere we belong
Yeah we go
Far away
As far as it will take

I need a break from

This haunted home
If I hear one more word then
Watch when I go psycho

So we go far away
As far as we can go
To somewhere we belong
Yeah we go
Far away
As far as it will take
To somewhere we get rid of all these snakes
