

Is There

Solitude Aeturnus

A burning hate that grows
As the one's released from within, within my sphere.
Tomorrow brings only plight
Another day of nothing
"Praise be" to the one, the one that gives.

Treasures, only a token of misguidance.
A lie only to be lead and to be followed blindly.
Release the pain
Follow your word.
How can one, one believe
When hell is all that is given

Where is the truth
Where is the light
Where is the peace
Where is God
Where is the truth
Where is God

Desires to be
Desires to live

Who, who is the God
Foevere spinning
Forever dead.
Bent and twisted
A pleasure only you behold.
Make the meager weak.
Love thy godand behold
Praise be

Where is the truth
Where is the light
Where is the peace
Where is God
Where is the truth
Where is God

Desires to be
Desires to live

Heaven is not far
But tied I go nowhere
Visions of life to be
Are wasted thoughts
And time continually
Beaten and dragged through life

Where is the truth
Where is the light
Where is the peace
Where is God
Where is the truth
Where is the light
Where is the peace
Where is God

Desires to be...
