

My Heart Is a Chapel

Solomon Burke

My heart is a chapel
And the lord is always there
When I walk he walks beside me
My thoughts are his to share

My cupboard may be empty
But my heart is never bare
See my heart is a chapel
And the lord is always there

My heart is a chapel
And the lord is always there
Each day to me is Sunday
Each day to say a prayer

That's when I count my blessings
I find them everywhere
See my heart is a chapel
And the lord is always there

My heart is a chapel
And the lord is always there
When I walk he walks beside me
My thoughts are his to share

They say my cupboard may be empty
But my heart is never bare
See my heart is a chapel
And the lord is always there

My heart is a chapel
And the lord is always there
Each day to me is Sunday
Each day to say a prayer

That's when I count my blessings
I find them everywhere
See my heart is a chapel
And the lord is always there
