

do i ever cross your mind

sombr

When you lay awake at night
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine

I have a photo of you in my bed
When I look at it, I smell your scent
And I can feel you breathing down my neck
Thinking you're weighing down my chest
I have a photo of you in my bed
When I look at it, I smell your scent
And I can feel you breathing down my neck
Thinking you're weighing down my chest

When you lay awake at night
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine

How did I see you every day
And then suddenly you weren't mine?
I can't wait to hold you when this is over (ah)
I can't wait to hold you (ooh) when this is over

When you lay awake at night
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine
Do I ever cross your mind?
'Cause you still cross mine

I can't wait to hold you when this is over
