

i'll remember tonight

sombr

I took you home, you were unknown
Your skin on my skin
We trade for bones, we die alone
We end and we begin

Your arms around me felt so right
When you're gone I'll remember tonight, tonight

I let you in, I'm vulnerable
You've seen me nude
You'll always be a piece of me
Now and through

Your arms around me felt so right
When you're gone I'll remember tonight, tonight

You leave, I stay, in disarray
I watch your face as you walk away
High heels in your hands, can't remember your name
Your lipstick on my neck will wash away
Your head on my chest won't leave my brain

Your arms around me felt so right
When you're gone I'll remember tonight, tonight (You leave, I stay, in disarray)
(I watch your face as you walk away)
