Ivy, won't you take me home?
If you bleed, I bleed
If you weep, I weep
Ivy, oh, please
Ivy, take me home

I look for you in everyone
I can't imagine the thought of you with anyone
I can't atone for the shit I've done
But if it's not you, I'm better off to the head with a gun
I look for you in everyone
I can't imagine the thought of you with anyone
I can't atone for the shit I've done
But if it's not you I'm better off to the head with a gun

Ivy, won't you love me? (Love me)
How you said you would
How you said you could
Ivy, oh, please
Ivy, take me home

I look for you in everyone
I can't imagine the thought of you with anyone
I can't atone for the shit I've done
But if it's not you, I'm better off to the head with a gun
I look for you in everyone
I can't imagine the thought of you with anyone
I can't atone for the shit I've done
But if it's not you, I'm better off to the head with a gun

You bleed, I bleed, you bleed, Ivy
You weep, I weep, you weep, Ivy
You bleed, I bleed, you bleed, Ivy (Ivy)
You weep, I weep, you weep, Ivy
You bleed, I bleed, you bleed, Ivy
(I look for you in everyone)
(I can't imagine the thought of you with anyone)
You weep, I weep, you weep, Ivy
