

I still keep our photos in a folder
In case you come back to me
Someone turned the corner with your perfume
And I fell to my knees

And I don't know, I'm out of plans
And trains could bring us back again
And I don't know, I'm out of drugs
And I thought feeling love could make things feel the same
And I don't know, I'm out of days
And different states could be enough to get away

I still keep your sweater in my dresser
In case I'm craving your scent
I still keep your toothbrush in my bathroom
In case you come back again

Oh I don't know, I'm out of plans
And trains could bring us back again
Oh I know now, I'm out of drugs
And I thought feeling love could make things feel the same
Oh I know now, I'm out of days
And different states could be enough to get away

Maybe we can find the time
A couple years down the line
I'll be going mainstream
And you'll be on the small screen

And I don't know, I'm out of plans
And trains could bring us back again
And I know now, I'm out of drugs
And I thought feeling love could make things feel the same
And I don't know, I'm out of days
And different states could be enough to get away
And I don't know, I'm out of plans
And trains could bring us back again
