

savior

sombr

Knew this from the moment I met you
I'd spend the lifetime missing you
There was a day that we shared a room
Now what we share is the moon
Oh-oh-ooh

Why'd you have to become a stranger?
You were supposed to be my savior

You came to me when I wasn't lookin'
You left when I was dependent
Forgive me for my flaws, I was learnin'
To love a woman, I was innocent
Oh-oh-ooh

Why'd you have to become a stranger?
You were supposed to be my savior
Why'd you have to become a stranger?
You were supposed to be my savior

But I bet you never knew
All my hope was pinned on you
All my hope was pinned on you
Woah-ooh-ooh
You're the one who cut me loose
And draw the heart who tied the news
All my hope was pinned on you
Woah-ooh-ooh-ooh

Why'd you have to become a stranger?
You were supposed to be my savior
Why'd you have to become a stranger?
You were supposed to be my savior
Why'd you have to become a stranger?
And you were supposed to be my savior
