

I'm Back Again

SoMo

Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
I'm back again
Back again
I'm back again
I'm

I'm back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends
But don't you ever doubt it 'cause
This was never pretend
I'm here to win
I'm here to win
Infatuated
Come on baby
The storm is passed
Let's just evaporate it
Whoa
Faster you grow
Faster you blow
Faster you go
Faster you go
Faster you go
I rented out my soul
But I paid it all up
This time, this time I ain't gon' stop
'Til I fill up the cup

Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
I'm back again
Back again
I'm back again
I'm back again

Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
I'm back again

Back again
I'm back again
I'm

Yeah
Go tell your friends
Go tell your friends
This is how that shit begins
It's how it bends
This the move that brings an end
To sour men
This the stuff they can't contend
Can't buy a trend
I put the mother of my children up
I put the signal out to all my people built on love
I wanna bless 'em
Wanna bless 'em
Wanna fill their cup
I want it
I want it
I wanna build it up up up

Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
I'm back again
Back again
I'm back again
I'm back again
Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
I'm back again
Back again
I'm back again
I'm

I saved my soul
I paid in gold
I'd bet it all
I'd never fold
I'll never fold
Would you stand out there in the cold?
I bet you won't
I'd bet it all
I'd never fold
I never fold
No
No

It took me ten years to really find my feet
Now I found them
What you want?

You gon' stick with me or keep doubting?
Papi-popping
When I pop again you can clown it
Or you can stand there with me while we count it

Got my old friends
Got my new friends
They're loyal
Got my, got my old friends
Got my new friends
I'm spoiled
I've been sober
Planting all my seeds in the soil
Situating all my intentions on something royal

Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
I'm back again
Back again
I'm back again
I'm back again

Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
Go tell your friends, friends
Back again
I'm back again
I'm back again
Back again
I'm back again
I'm
