SoMo

Color the lines, love
Would you just help me?
Am I just dreaming
I must've fell asleep, oh no

Sleeping alone's when you come alive
It's when you come alive
But you say you've had enough
Say what you want
Don't you lie to me
Don't you hide from me
Girl, don't you go covering up
I've been doing things
Insinuating
I've been on the run
Yeah we've been on the run
We've gone through things
Let's evaluate
Think we've seen it all
Think I've woken up
But that's when you call
You were hesitating your all
You've been steady weight
I've been sitting by the fire
Girl I was bummin up
I've been doin things that liars
Never get pardon from
I've been thinking to myself
I've been sleeping by myself
Is it just dream?
I'm thinking time will tell

You know when you read about
Me in that bedroom
Know that it don't have a thing on us
Know that it don't have a thing on you
My wish is upon a Star
That we'll go far
You could go
Jump up in any car
But you picked mine what's up
You can do anything
That you put your mind on

But
Would you come back?
Just say you come back
Will you?
Say you'll come back
Would you come back just?
Say you'll come back
Will you?
Say you'll come
Say you'll come
Would you come back?
Just say you'll come back
Will you?

Say you'll come back
Would you come back?

You were taking time with all your doubts
I was chasing all the run arounds
Then I come back and you'd run your mouth
You'd start listing off improper nouns
I'd get faded and go underground
You start yelling that you're juggling
You'd have thought you'd been smuggling
How we gonna make ends meet?
These are things that I struggle with
I've been fucking with the wrong people
Started worshipping the wrong steeple
Sent in all the wrong details
The long details
You know we both know
That we just needed to grow

But
Would you come back?
Just say you'll come back
Will you?
Say you come back
Would you come back?
Just say you'll come back
Will you?
Say you'll come
Say you'll come
Would you come back?
Just say you'll come back
Will you?
Say you'll back
Would you come back?

When you're on a tight rope, they can see it all fall...

Would you come back?
Just say you'll come back
Will you?
Say you come back
Would you come back?
Just say you'll come back
Will you?
Say you'll come
Say you'll come
Would you come back?
Just say you'll come back
Will you?
Say you'll come back
Would you come back?

Would you come back?
Just say you'll come back
Will you?
Say you come back
Would you come back?
Just say you'll come back
Will you?
Say you'll come
Say you'll come
Would you come back?
Just say you'll come back

Will you?
Say you'll come back
Would you come back?
