Resurrection

Son Lux

It's an impossible dream but you realise
You're not waking up
Watch as the silence and protest fails us
Higher than reason, [?]
Gravity no longer wins
It's an impossible thought, so you theorise

This is what the resurrection feels like
From the other side

It's an improbable scheme but we tow along
And no one iquires
Can we be this ugly and still have a beautiful life
Be a beautiful wife?
'Cause I'm a believer and I'm not a fool

Is this what the resurrection feels like?
Is this just what the resurrection feels like
From the other side, from the other side, from the other side?

Is this what the resurrection feels like?
Is this just what the resurrection feels like
From the other side, from the other side, from the other side?
Out of the darker day and into the brighter night
From the other side, from the other side, from the other side
Out of the darker day and into the brighter night

Is this what the resurrection feels like?
Is this what the resurrection feels like
From the other side, from the other side, from the other side?

The [?] the friction, the louder the sound
We'll all hear the roar when the walls hit the ground
