

Can't Get Enough

Son Mieux

Summertime, and the living's easy
Al fresco dining, but it's getting breezy
Stick around even though
I'm hearing my heart go
"What the hell is this? Menagerie, we don't belong here"
Now the old perfume of happiness is a little too sweet for me
It's all that I've known
But I'm hearing my heart go

I can't get enough
I can't get enough
(I can't get enough)

Old habits live, like a second coming
If I ever slip, no need for judgement
I get up when I fall
While I'm hearing my heart call
"Take a sip of your pride and spit it out, at least you tried it"
I dropped the part, forgot the lines
While the last applause echoes through my mind
The curtain has called
But I'm hearing my heart go

I can't get enough
I can't get enough
(I can't get enough)

Have you ever tried to love and leave someone
But you can't get enough?
Have you ever tried too hard to be someone
That was not you enough?
Then maybe you'll know
Why I'm hearing my heart go
Have you ever felt it stop and start again
But you can't get enough?
After all this time, time and time again
You can't get enough
Then maybe you'll know
Why I'm hearing my heart go

I can't get enough
I can't get enough
I can't get enough
I can't get enough

"Take a sip of your pride and spit it out, at least you tried it"
I dropped the part, forgot the lines
While the last applause echoes through my mind
The curtain has called
I'm hearing my heart go
I can't get enough
I'm hearing my heart go
I can't get enough
