

Dancing At The Doors Of Heaven

Son Mieux

Hear me out while I awake
From the reappearing dream of yesterday
I'm leaving this old town to find a way
So hear me out, hear me out today

As I hold my head, I hold it high
If all we got here is a little time
I'll never give up, I'll never give up again
Let the wind take flight, let it pour 'til I'm
Dancing at the doors of heaven, I
I'll never give up, I'll never give up again

It's too late now to hesitate
And I know it must be right for I'm afraid
There's a shadow to the east that's giving chase
But the promise of the morning gives me faith

So I hold my head, I hold it high
If all we got here is a little time
I'll never give up, I'll never give up again
Let the wind take flight, let it pour 'til I'm
Dancing at the doors of heaven, I
I'll never give up, I'll never give up again

I'll never give up, I'll never give up again
I'll never give up, I'll never give up again
