

Feels

Son Mieux

Time to pack my bags and leave
Oh, it's been a year and I know it's over
I'm glad I'm walking out differently
Then I did when I walked in on my [?] out again
Finally I feel the air I breathe in
And I can see the light
Become a light of me
Well in your lights I'll always be

Oh I don't know where I am
But it feels like home
And I move myself away
When it don't feels like home
Well now I love myself again
And it feels like home
Oh I don't know where I am
But it feels like home

I know I haven't always tried
To be part of the days and ways you lived by
But I got time to figure out what I had to be Figured out eventually
It's time to be a man and leave
I'll leave your safe grounds to find some distance
I am a light so light my high
Well I'll become a higher me

Oh I don't know where I am
But it feels like home
And I move myself away
When it don't feels like home
Well now I love myself again
And it feels like home
Oh I don't know where I am
But it feels like home

Oh I don't know where I am
But it feels like home
And I move myself away
When it don't feels like home
Well now I love myself again
And it feels like home
Oh I don't know where I am
But it feels like home
