

For Those

Son Mieux

For all my promises of empty words
For those I listen to but never heard

You don't wanna see me
I'm burning all my bridges
You don't wanna see me
I'm tearing up my stitches

For those I claim to love but only hurt
For all that I took but never earned, earned

You don't wanna see me
I'm burning all my bridges
You don't wanna see me
I'm tearing up my stitches

For all my promises of empty words
Burning all my bridges
For those I listen to but never heard
I'm tearing up my stitches
For those I claim to love but only hurt
I'm burning all my bridges
For all that I took but never earned, earned
I'm tearing up my stitches

I'm burning all my bridges
I'm tearing up my stitches
Burning all my bridges
Tearing up my stitches
